

CASTING CALL

Total Insight Theatre is an award-winning theatre company who are producing a powerful anti-knife-crime film called 'When I Was 14'. The film is a verbatim piece formed from real interviews with people who have been impacted by knife crime.

We are casting 2 roles for a 1-day shoot in January. We particularly welcome applicants from underrepresented communities and are committed to maintaining our inclusive culture as we believe in the value of different perspectives, experience and knowledge. Please don't hesitate to let us know if you have any access requirements.

- MALE, late 20s/early 30s. Former gang member, streetwise, working class, tough. Turned his life around after spending 5 years in prison and losing his cousin in a gang-related attack.
- FEMALE, 20s/early 30s. Working class, kind, loving, mum of two. Younger brother was murdered in a knife attack.

Actors MUST be East Midlands based with the willingness/ability to travel to LEICESTER.

Rate of pay: £458.20 per actor

HOW TO APPLY

If interested, please email the Dropbox or Vimeo link to a short video (approximately 1 minute) telling us about yourself, along with your CV/Spotlight link to kieran@totalinsighttheatre.com.

DEADLINE – Saturday 5th December

